Let Us Launder YOUR CURTAINS.

Your curtains will need laundering this fall. The usage they have received and the dust they have absorbed during the summer makes them unfit to hang the entire winter. We wash them clean, without damaging them; we starch them just stiff enough to drape right and hold their shape; and we dry them perfectly square. Send your curtains to us, and you'll be pleasantly surprised by their appearance when we return them. Do it today.

Commandant of the Norfolk Navy Yard Steps Down By Operation of Law as to Age.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 20.—Rear Admiral Edward D. Taussig, commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, closed his active career in the navy today, having been transferred to the retired list by operation of law on account of age. He is a native of Missouri and was star graduate of the United States Naval Academy in the class of 1867. One year after he entered the navy as ensign he was commended for services during the earthquake at Arica in 1868. During the ensuing twenty years he served on the European and Pacific stations and in the coast survey. In the war with Spain he commanded the Bennington and following the close of the war he took possession of Wake Island and Guam for the United States. In late years he has been in command of the battleship Massachusetts and of the navy yards at Boston, Pensacola and Norfolk. At the latter place he is succeeded as commandant by Captain William A. Marshall, recently in command of the cruiser North Carolina.
